HOT NEWS = FROM

with Michael Parkinson

Uncle Pigg's sent me to the capital of the cinema world to bring you all the latest news and gossip, so here goes...

Mel Gibson and Tina Turner are to star in a violent futuristic movie set in Scotland! It's called 'Mad Mac'.

Bruce the Shark, out of work since his starring role in the 'Jaws' films, is looking for a part he can get his teeth into. 'Clint Eastwood's leg would be nice', says Bruce.

Filming is due to start on Arnold Schwarzenegger's 28th Barbarian movie, 'Conan the Persuader' with the features: Conan's battle with the Council of Doom for Possession of the Mystic Bus Pass.

Jennifer Beatts is to play a women plumber with ambitions to become a disco star in 'Fluridance'.

After complaints from Mary Lighthouse, Dibsby's 'Return to Winnie the Pooh' has been re-titled 'Winnie Number Two'.

Disney studios are making a film based on the true story of a woman who opened a game reserve for endangered insects. It's called 'Bom Flia'.

Roy Stringbean Jr., the world's thinnest actor, has a part in the upcoming re-make of 'Lassie'... he's playing the lead.

NEW MOVIE NEWS: An alien force possesses Captain Kirk's footlocker, which runs wild on the bridge of the Enterprise, then hides in a ventilation duct. The film is called 'Star Trek V... The Search For Sock'.

Fozzie Bear, in town for the premiere of the new Muppet movie, has complained about his hotel chambermaid. 'She dragged me out of my room, threw me up in the yard, and beat me up with a big stick!' whines Fozzie. 'I thought he was a rug!' claims the maid.

My Little Horses in THE NEW HORSE

1. One day the little horses saw a strange new horse, pulling a cart coming towards them.

2. "What kind of horse are you?" asked Baby Boring. But the stranger didn't reply, and began to unload his cart.

3. "He's on dry land, so he can't be a sea horse!" said Powderpuff. The strange horse was now assembling an odd device.

4. "Perhaps he's a clothes-horse!" giggled Trouserfly. But the strange horse still didn't reply.

5. The odd horse had finished building his machine, and was loading boulders onto it. "Please tell us what sort of horse you are!" whinnied Lemon Plop.

6. "Okay, if it'll shut you wimps up!" growled the stranger. "I'm a rocking horse! Hur, Hur!"

Mary Lighthouse's TOP 10 FILMS YOU SHOULDN'T SEE!

I'VE COMMANDEERED THIS SPACE TO BRING TO YOUR ATTENTION SOME NASTY FILMS THAT HAVE COME TO MY NOTICE! THESE ARE DEFINITELY UNSUITABLE FOR CHILDREN!

- 1 E.T.
Ugh! The 'hero' of this film is a revolting wrinkly thing. I suspect that the producers were trying to make fun of old people.
- 2 SUPERMAN
The main character prances around in his underpants and a pair of ladies' tights! Shocking!
- 3 THE SOUND OF MUSIC
A foolish nanny encourages the obnoxious brats she's looking after to sing horrible loud songs. Don't they know that children should be seen and not heard?
- 4 SPIDERMAN
Man dresses up as a horrible yucky spider. Disgusting! It's a pity nobody steps on him.
- 5 CINDERELLA
Ungrateful bussy packs in the good job she's been given by her step-sisters, and fritters the night away disco-dancing in unsuitable footwear. Shameful!
- 6 STAR WARS
Horrid teenager and his silly pals fly all over the place being nasty to that nice Mr. Vader chap, who was only trying to make everyone behave themselves.
- 7 RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK
I was looking forward to seeing old man Noah, and the animals going in two-by-two. Imagine my surprise when I found out it's about a scruffy yobbo who tries to steal a jewellery box from some Germans!
- 8 KARATE KID
Encourages violence. All the children in the audience threw their ice-creams at me when I walked into the cinema.
- 9 SLEEPING BEAUTY
Encourages laziness (audience fell asleep).
- 10 THE ADVENTURES OF YOGI BEAR
'Bear' is the right word for this character! He wears nothing but a hat, a collar and tie! What a weirdo!

SPECIAL EFFECTS SECRETS REVEALED

RAY HARRYHAMSEN is a veteran special-effects pig, with over 39,000 films to his credit, including 'I Married A Zombie From Portsmouth', 'The Good The Bad And The Lighthouse', and 'The Loaf From Space That Ate The Earth's Crust'. Here, he lets you into some of the secrets behind those stunning effects you see on the cinema screen...

In my first film, 'Fins Of Horror', this monstrous creature was created by carefully applying foam rubber, aardvark-liver grease, pan-slick make-up and stuck-on fish-scales. Luckily, the actor holding her was naturally photogenic, and didn't require so much work.

Wearing heavy metal plate-armour, Arnold Schwarzenegger decided to do his own stunts in this breath-taking final scene from 'Conan The Barbarian Fights The Flames From Fiery Fuhma'. As you can see, the whole scene was idly convincing.

We had to use a lot of expensive equipment to film this thrilling stampede from 'When Dinosaurs Ruled Bognor' ... including a fast-motion Olympic THX-33 camera with wide-angle zoom lens, overhead microphone boom modules, travelling matte projection screen, automatic compensating light-filters, and a time machine.

This film, 'The Curse Of The Crimson Creature', was shot, surprisingly, on a very low budget. A difficult illusion to create, but it was achieved in a very simple, yet effective way ... we told the actor he wasn't getting paid.

'Conan The Ballbearing' was the sequel to 'Conan The Barbarian Fights The Flames From Fiery Fuhrma'. Again, Schwarzenegger did all his own stunts. A 'shining' example of an 'all round' performer.

'The Man Who Never Worked Again' was the last film I made. An autobiographical picture, in which I played myself in the lead role. The above scene was finally achieved after I revealed the secrets of the film company's special effects department to newspapers and magazines for ridiculously low fees.
